9:55:17 AM	Johnny Blackbeard 759787552	 Yeah, you know, the normies, they stopped 25% of the way in. That fucking building should still be occupied right now. They should have cops stuck inside that building. They should– they took it. They were there, they were in. But instead they decided to run around and take a bunch of fucking selifes. And, you know, steal some memorabilia to prove that they were in there so that their conviction is assured. And, they just, they stopped 25% of the way in. Because it’s clear to me at this point, the American people, the, you know, air-quotes “patriots,” they’re looking for somebody to save them still. They want us to do it for them. And Proud Boys can’t bear this burden. It’s too big for us alone. We needed them to step up, and all they gave us was 25% of a measure. And now they’re all back home and, uh, yesterday’s events are gonna be used to smash us in ways we couldn’t even imagine. It’s just-- I don’t even know, man. At this point I’m getting ready to get together with my guys and talk about how we’re gonna proceed when all of this shit comes down. Because it is coming down.

9:29:27 PM	Joshuas Maxstud 1063317522	I am not the noblest of beards, but I do have a beard. I think we have arrived at a major fork in the road. We either continue to escalate and go the 1776 proper route, or we reconsider and try something else. If we go full 1776, people are going to die, and lives are going to be ruined. Maybe that's what it takes, I don't know. The fact that people are trying to say that antifa instigated the capitol ish tells me that they aren't on board with what happened today.

2:39:03 PM	Rufio Panman 573782641	Alright I'm gunna say it. FUCK TRUMP! Fuck him more than Biden. I've followed this guy for 4 years and given everything and lost it all. Yes he woke us up, but he led us to believe some great justice was upon us...and it never happened, now I've got some of my good friends and myself facing jail time cuz we followed this guys lead and never questioned it. We are now and always have been on our own. So glad he was able to pardon a bunch of degenerates as his last move and shit on us on the way out. Fuck you trump you left us on he battle field bloody and alone

Heath is sewing tons of doubt into this club at a time where we need to be strong and smart. If anyone here thinks doing nothing is going to take us off the radar of our enemies you're fooling yourselves, I've tried this before, it doesn't work and for guys like us on the west coast, our lives are being destroyed due to inaction and government control. I'm not saying we need to gear up and go to war, but the Heaths in this club will never call the shots as long as I'm around.

11:18:35 PM	Chris Philips PB 619039572	So uh, we gonna announce official ban on rally's for a minimum of 3 months?
11:21:26 PM	Enrique Florida Pb 581632416	I'll type it up tomorrow
11:24:25 PM	Rufio Panman 573782641	I think standby order for 2 weeks..we don't know what's going down and we may need to get involved with shit depending on if things get crazy or maybe we don't do anything at all, but a full blown ban for 3 months sends a message to the whole club that we are scared
11:26:03 PM	Rufio Panman 573782641	We need to show boldness and confidence, but also remain still for the moment.

Time	Name	Message
6:56:54 PM	SPAM TACOS 619839226	The fact that the rally bois put every member of this club at risk and have no remorse of that fact is disgusting woman like behavior. To expect anyone to listen to people that make the same retarded mistakes over and over even when half the presidents are against it is insane. @NobleLead I just saw you mention making two clubs but we're not going to have to. One club is going to be formed in jail.
7:08:04 PM	Rufio Panman 573782641	I'm not sure what some of you want. You want to be in a club were we watch what's going on around us and do nothing? Is that proud? Read our manifesto, have you read the death of the west? This attitude is exactly why we are at where we are in this country, people were too afraid to stand up and didn't want to risk their comfortable lives to preserve what men before us died for. This club has NEVER not been active in the fight to preserve our western values. If you want to blame guys like me, fine, but it doesn't change the fact that we are all slowly losing our freedoms one day at a time, Proudboy or not. I guess you will have to figure out who you are going to be amidst all this and if you can live with yourself after all is said and done.
7:08:57 PM	Rufio Panman 573782641	We've all agreed to a stand down, but some of you fucks can't ever be satisfied. I have zero fucks to give to you
7:11:32 PM	Miguel H. 575806063	 Excuse me, guys, it's Saturday, and as Proud Boys, whether you're a fuckin', uh, you know, rally boy or a party boy, both of you faggots should be drinking. And you know what's on right now that I'm about to watch, about to have my boys come over? The McGregor fights, yeah. But I'm goin' for Poirier, because he's from Louisiana and I've met him before, and he's a cool dude. But McGregor's probably gonna murder him, so. Y'all do some cool shit, man, instead of arguing.
7:12:35 PM	Rufio Panman 573782641	 The point is not about results, man. The point is, we can stand and do nothing and maybe -- maybe -- we'd be better off, but it's, that goes against everything we stand for. And, I'd be lying if I said I haven't lost a whole lot; there's no doubt about that, but I also tell you right now, um, that a lot of people don't have what we have. We basically have a small army at our disposal and other small armies attached to us that will follow us because of the reputation we've built. So if shit does hit the fan, the things that we've done and our reputation that we've built and the experience that we gained, um, is priceless in my opinion. Our ability to, uh, confidently go and confront these issues in our communities where other people have completely lost that confidence in this day and age is priceless to me. So that's what I think we've, we've gained. Freedoms have been taken left and right, I would say mostly because people just didn't do enough, and we banked -- we banked on Trump to do our bidding and, um, he fucking didn't follow through. So, I agree with what everybody's saying, honestly, and I think we all came to an understanding that, you know, we need to be smarter and back down from rallies. But if we're gonna question everything we've done in the past as if it was all for nothing, well, I mean, I don't really know what to say about that. I mean, we could say-- we could talk back and forth about shit like that all day, uh, but the fact is that we're here, and I'm proud of who we are and what we've overcome amidst everything that's been thrown at us, we're still standing on two feet, and I don't think that's something we shouldn't be proud of. I think we should be damn proud of who we are. And yeah, there's definitely a lot of risks and a lot more heat on us, but we can handle it if we're smart. But to criticize all the guys who have gone and done all of these things, um, and the hours, and the fucking planning, and the brutal bullshit that we've had to deal with in the streets, is not proud, I don't think.
